

Sample questions

01. What was the identification number of the police vehicle you were assigned on _____?

TIP: Use the date of your citation here.

02. Was the radar _____ your vehicle or was it _____?

TIP: If the unit is a _____, ask the following.

02a. Have you ever _____ that radar unit?

TIP: If unit has been _____ continue, otherwise skip the next three questions.

03. When was the last time you calibrated the radar unit?

TIP: If the radar unit has not been calibrated after it was dropped ask questions 3a-3b.

Tip: The radar unit must be calibrated to ensure the officer obtained the accurate speed prior to issuing a speeding ticket.

03a. Did you have the _____ after it was _____?

03b. Who _____ the radar _____ after it was _____?

TIP: Focus on the fact the radar may not be working properly due to _____

04. When was the last time that _____ was _____?

TIP: This is especially important if it was not _____ after being _____.

05. Can you provide me with the _____ for the _____ the day you cited me?

TIP: Look for the _____ expiration, which is also called _____. If it is _____ immediately tell the court. If the officer does not _____, make a note and use in your closing statement.

06. Can outside interference cause the radar to receive false or inaccurate readings?

TIP: If yes, ask questions 6a-6b.

06a. What things can cause interference?

06b. How does the interference affect the radar unit?

07. What things can cause _____?

08. How does the _____ effect _____?

NOTES

_____ Did not provide _____.

09. Did you _____ the _____ with the _____ to check for _____?

TIP: If no, ask questions 9a-9c..

09b. Did you do anything to check the _____?

09i. Why did you choose not to check the _____?

09i. How did you ensure no _____ affected the when you cited me?

10. Did you use a tuning fork to calibrate your radar gun that day?

11. Could you explain your method of _____ using the _____?

12. Was that _____ manufactured for that _____?

TIP: If the _____ was made by a company other than the one that _____, you may want to argue the accuracy of the _____.

13. What is the serial number for the _____?

TIP: Generally, the _____ is specific for a particular radar unit. If the _____ is for a different _____, you may want to argue the accuracy of _____.

14. Where was my vehicle when you _____ your radar unit?

TIP: Show a photo and have the officer select the _____ in the photo where he _____. If the location the officer chooses is _____ than _____ of the _____, it would have been impossible to _____ your speed on radar.

15. Can you provide any evidence that shows you are trained and certified to use radar?

CLOSING ARGUMENT

Your honor, I have successfully proven that Officer _____ failed to _____. I have also demonstrated that officer _____ did not follow the proper _____. I am requesting that the court _____ my speeding ticket because _____.

*This sample outline is intended to represent the product and services rendered by Ticket Tutor, LLC. The outline, questions, and format, is different from the actual product that you will purchase. The sample outline is intended to give a brief overview of how the product works and provide potential consumers a simulated product for review. It is the goal of Ticket Tutor, LLC., to provide the latest and most accurate information to prepare you to fight a ticket in court. Ticket Tutor, LLC., does not practice law, nor does it provide legal advice. Ticket Tutor, LLC., provides a system that allows consumers self help and technical insight regarding various issues pertinent traffic citations. Ticket Tutor is designed to be used to fight a speeding tickets, red light ticket, and stop sign tickets.

NOTES

Did not _____ the area for _____.

No proof of certification

COURT ROOM PREPARATION

- Take photographs of the area where the alleged violation was committed.
- Review all of the information you received from Ticket Tutor.
- Review your court outline and be familiar with the questions.
- Visit Tickettutor.com and view the definitions and research buttons that are found in the "Beat My Ticket" section. These areas are educational and provide valuable resources to help you fight a ticket. The definitions section will help you understand terminology related to your case.

THE DAY OF YOUR TRIAL

- Wake up early and review your case and outline.
- Take extra time to prepare your clothes and groom.
- Wear business attire.
- Cover tattoos and remove all earrings, nose rings, lip rings, etc. These items can create a bias. Do not give the judge a reason to dislike you before you even fight your ticket.

THE MOST VALUABLE INFORMATION HAS BEEN DELETED FROM THIS SAMPLE PAGE.

Ticket Tutor, LLC provides thorough information that will teach you how to fight a speeding ticket and other types of traffic tickets. We recommend that you purchase our product so you can fight and beat a ticket. Ticket Tutor, LLC, can be used to fight speeding tickets, stop sign tickets, and other traffic violations. Beating a ticket is nearly impossible if you do not have the knowledge needed to question the officer about the case.

Ticket Tutor has been designed to fight a ticket in all 50 states.